

Incidental Take Permitting

St. Johns County, Florida

Development of a Habitat Conservation Plan for the protection of sea turtles and Anastasia Island beach mice in support of an Incidental Take Permit for beach driving, St. Johns County, Florida.

Activities:

- Review and summarize existing data on protected species within coastal areas of St. Johns County
- Evaluate beach management activities and describe potential impacts to protected species
- Develop programs, policies, and guidelines to minimize and mitigate impacts to protected species
- Conduct stakeholder meetings to determine socio-economic impacts of HCP implementation
- Develop an Environmental Assessment in support of the Incidental Take Permit application

Client:
St. Johns County, Florida

Contact:
Ms. Jan P. Brewer
Environmental Manager
St. Johns County
Growth Management Services
4020 Lewis Speedway
St. Augustine, Florida 32095
(904) 823-2479

Contract Period:
August 2001 – Present