

Protected Species Specialist

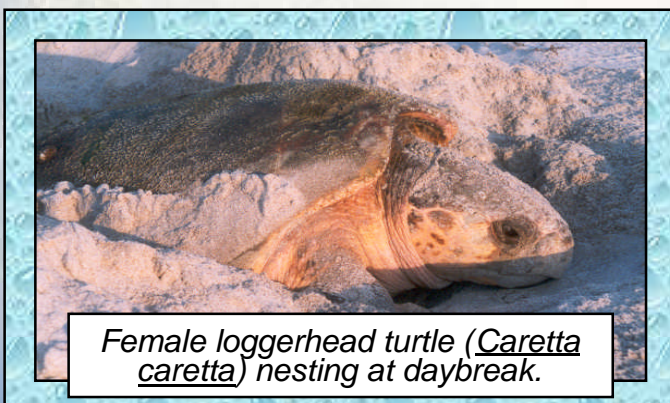

Volusia County, Florida

Continuing services contract to monitor sea turtles and other protected species in support of Volusia County's Habitat Conservation Plan and Incidental Take Permit for beach driving, Volusia County, Florida.

Activities:

- Coordinate data collection activities of volunteers
- Develop policies and guidelines for protected species management
- Analyze data and prepare reports in compliance with federal permits
- Develop public awareness materials
- Provide expert witness testimony and perform other activities needed to comply with the County's Habitat Conservation Plan and Incidental Take Permit
- Prepare environmental assessments and other documents in support of permit renewal

Client:
Volusia County, Florida

Contact:
Mr. Steven Kintner
Director
Volusia County
Environmental Management
123 West Indiana Avenue
Deland, Florida 32770
(386) 736-5927 ext. 5851

Contract Period:
March 1996 – Present